Tennessee Motor Coach Association's Code of Ethics

This Code of Ethics for the members of the Tennessee Motor Coach Association has been adopted to promote and maintain the highest standards of intercity motorcoach service and personal conduct among its members.

We, the members of the Tennessee Motor Coach Association, in carrying out our rules of providing service to the traveling public, recognize the need to do so in a professional manner and to deal with the public and our colleagues with the highest degree of integrity. Therefore, we herewith set forth the following creed, which shall govern our endeavors to fulfill our obligations:

- To adhere to the professional standards of the Tennessee Motor Coach Association and to work to further its goals and objectives.
- To conduct all business affairs with integrity, sincerity and accuracy in an open and forthright manner.
- To act with integrity in financial dealings with the public and with entities utilized to help arrange or provide service and accommodations for motorcoach travelers.
- To conduct our business and operations in a safe manner in order to protect the public and to promote the image of the industry.
- To work to instill consumer and public confidence in the industry, avoiding any action conducive to discrediting the Motor Coach industry or the members of this association.
- To maintain on a current status all license, permits, Insurance with all federal, state and local government agencies applicable to the industry.
- To adhere and comply with all articles of the bylaws of the Tennessee Motor Coach Association.
